**** IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON THE AGENDA

Below you may find some very important information on our conference program that we kindly ask you to read carefully before planning your trip and booking your accommodation.

On Thursday evening we will have the Managing Partners' Forum.

This Managing Partners' Forum will be something special thanks to enthusiasm and creativity of our host Mr. Sarailis - the Managing Partners' Forum members will be guests of Mr. Sarailis in his private club - the GARNISON CLUB.

Managing Partners' Forum is envisaged to be the place where managing partners of Avrio Advocati member firms gather, share their experiences in managing law firms and discuss various issues concerning law firm management (ranging from day-to-day to strategical aspects of management). Having said that, I would kindly urge as much of you – senior partners of Avrio Advocati member firms - as practically possible to attend this conference and take an active participation in the continuing and open-ended brainstorming process that will most certainly work to the benefits of all involved, our network, our law firms and us as individuals. Almost needless to say – and this time junior or middle-level lawyers are very much welcome as always: however, this forum should be reserved for the more senior representation at the conference.

As always on Avrio Advocati conferences, Friday will be the main conference day, with a very impressive list of speakers. Just to give you a hint, thanks to the sterling work of our host, we will have Mr. Norman Bacal as the key speaker at the conference. Mr. Norman Bacal is the author of "Breakdown" - the best selling book on the rise and stunning collapse of the law firm Heenan Blaikie – Mr. Bacal was a founding partner of the said Toronto office back in 1989 that grew rapidly over 25 years and collapsed overnight. His Friday lecture is something that should be heard by all of us!

On Saturday, we will have a program exclusively dedicated to Avrio Advocati internal matters followed again by the Legal Sector Focus Groups. Positive feedback from the just completed Frankfurt conference and the ideas on how we should proceed with Legal Sector Focus Groups will most certainly be taken into consideration.

Detailed agenda with booking form for various social events will be circulated shortly!
